

— IN A — PERFECT WORLD

CHILDREN'S DAY OF ACTION

WHAT YOU'LL DO:

Let your voices be heard with sidewalk art, sign making and a toy protest sparking conversations about injustice. Talk with your family about issues that you feel strongly about and choose a day to express those feelings to your community.

4 ACTIVITIES TO TRY:

#1 - SIDEWALK CHALK: Create some bold, beautiful messages for everyone who walks by. What do you want them to know and do right now? What kind of change do you want to see in the world?

#2 - SIGN-MAKING: Grab some cardboard & some markers/pencil crayons and make signs expressing your ideas. Post them in your front yard or in your windows for the community to see.

#3 - TOY PROTEST: Stage a mini-protest by making small signs. Grab your dolls, stuffed animals, and action figures, and give them their own voice about what needs to change.

#4 - SHINE A LIGHT: Grab a flashlight, shine it into the sky and have a moment of silence for those affected by injustice.
